

Mount St. Mary Academy

invites you to our

Winter Writing Workshop

6th and 7th grade girls are invited to a three-day workshop to write, read, learn and share their stories with other girls who LOVE writing!

February 22 - 24, 2012
9:00 A.M. - 2:00 P.M.

All students will participate in three sessions:

- Poetry
- Short Story
- Journalism

Special Guests!
And...Prizes!

We'd like to know what type of writing you're passionate about!

Along with registration, all girls are to submit a writing sample from one of the following categories:

Poetry

- Poem(s) should be 1-2 pages
- They may be either typed or in artistic format.

Short Story - Fiction

- 500-1,000 words
- The story must be typed

Real Life Story

- 500-1,000 words
- The story must be typed
- Story may be in journalist style or a 1st person experience.

There is a registration fee of $15.00.

Registration must include: $15 entry fee, writing sample, name, address, school, grade and phone number.

We are accepting a limited amount of students. ALL writing sample registrations must be in by Tuesday, Feb. 14.

Confirmation letters will be sent as registration information is received. Checks may be made out to, Mount St. Mary Academy. Students with all writing abilities are welcome. Snacks will be provided each day and a pizza lunch will be served on Friday the 24th.

Questions? Please call Katie Stubbe, Admissions Coordinator, at 877-1358 x413 or kstubbe@mt-st-marys.org.